James Lindseth

James Lindseth, 67, Bismarck, died Dec. 20, 2015, at Sanford Health, Bismarck, after a long, courageous 15-year battle with cancer. Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 28, at Parkway Funeral Service, 2330 Tyler Parkway, with Deacon Jerry Martin officiating.

Visitation will be held from 2 to 7 p.m. Sunday at Parkway Funeral Service, Bismarck, and a prayer service will begin at 7 p.m.

James C. Lindseth was born April 25, 1948, in Crosby, the son of Jens and Clara (Henning) Lindseth. He grew up and attended school in Crosby and graduated in 1966. James attended Wahpeton North Dakota State School of Science. On Aug. 2, 1969, he married Linda Bobby Aherin from LaMoure.

Jim worked for the State Water Commission for 24 years before retiring in June 2014. James was an Eagle Scout and was very involved with the Boy Scout Troop 11, where he was an assistant scout master, chartered organization representative, and the council commissioner. James was an avid woodcarver with the Flickertail Wood Carvers Club for over 20 years and was proud of having carvings on display in Medora.

James is survived by his wife, Bobby, Bismarck; his mother, Clara, Williston; two children, Jodi Lindseth, Amarillo, Texas, and Robert (Misty) Lindseth, Amarillo; three grandchildren, Jazmin, Jacey and Phoenix; one brother, Ted, Williston; two sisters, Cheryl (Jerry) Martin, Williston, and Cyndi (Kevin) Johnson, Chandler, Ariz.; and many nieces and nephews and family friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Jens; his brother, Thomas; and his grandparents.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to the Northern Lights Council, 4200 19th Ave. S., Fargo, N.D. 58103.
